

SPRANG UP STEPS

And Cursed Hangman for Being Slow in Adjusting the Noose—Denounced Witnesses.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Details of the first execution of an American in the Philippines have been received. The account shows a shocking disregard of the natural instinct of life. Harry Cline, a negro soldier who killed three native boys near Parangue, Luzon, died on the scaffold in Manila on September 20. When Cline was called to die he sprang up to his platform, covering three steps at a bound. He cursed the hangman for being slow about adjusting the noose and made a brief speech, denouncing those who had borne witness against him and said, with an oath, that he would come back and "Pick the eyes out of them."

NEW YORK'S TALLEST BOY.

New York, Nov. 4.—Fifteen year old Wm Thomas Winant, who was reputed to be the tallest boy in the state, died of pneumonia last Wednesday at the home of his parents here. The boy was not quite 16 and he stood nearly 6 feet 2 inches in his stockings.

RICHEST

Man in World is Clark According to Mining Paper Rating Him at Two and a Half Billions.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 4.—The American Mining News contains the following article about the great United Verde Mine, the property of Senator W. H. Clark, which, if correct, would indicate that it is probably the richest mine, and he the richest man in the world:

"It has only lately come to light that the average value of the ore taken from the United Verde is $75 per ton in all values—gold, silver, and copper. This mine, so far as has been developed, including explorations and diamond drilling below the present workings, shows an immense ore chimney, 400 by 600 feet across, that has been explored by shafts, tunnels and drill holes to a depth of 1,400 feet.

"Just how it will be possible to work this mine down before the heat limit is reached is hard to say, but a reasonable estimate by one of the best mining engineers in this country shows that the mine to the depth of 1,400 feet contains 336,000,000 cubic feet of ore, and estimating 11 cubic feet to the ton there are practically 28,000,000 tons in sight.

If we carry these a little further on the present four values of the United Verde we have the average value of the ore equaling $2,500,000,000. The present owner of the property has refused $500,000,000 for the mine."

LOCKED

In a Church Until They Contributed Enough to Pay a Debt—Novel Plan of an Elder.

Union City, Ind., Nov. 4.—A novel though somewhat vigorous method was employed here Sunday by Elder Z. T. Sweeney, of Columbus, Ind., to raise a church debt. After preaching the dedicatory sermon in the new Christian church of this place he instructed the janitor to lock the doors and bring him the key, after which he announced that none could leave the building until $1,200 had been raised. The plan worked well, for in a very short time the sum of $1,500 was forthcoming.

PROTECTED MOTHER.

Wilmington, Ill., Nov. 4.—To protect his mother from assault from his father, Daniel Hogan, Jr., shot Hogan, Sr., in the back at the Hogan home here last Saturday night. The wounded men who recently operated as a book maker on the Chicago race tracks died last night. The boy is under arrest.

BONNELL APPOINTED.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The President today appointed John R. Bonnell of Crawfordsville, Ind., as collector of internal revenue for the Seventh district of that state.

LAST DAY

OF THE TESTIMONY IN THE SCHLEY CASE

THERE WILL BE THREE DAYS FOR ARGUMENT.

CASE TO CLOSE ON THURSDAY.

Effect of the Case on Navy Appointments is Causing Alarm Among Naval Officials.

Washington, Nov. 4.—This is the last day during which testimony will be submitted to the Schley court of inquiry. Judge Advocate Lemly has a little evidence in rebuttal, and Admiral Schley will correct the report of his testimony. As he was on the stand five days he will have many corrections. This is due to the fact that some statements while clear to the court at the time they were made appear in print to be ambiguous. His corrections will suggest questions to both Rayner and Lemly and it was believed this morning that he would be on the stand most of the day.

Then there will be about three days of argument.

Captain Lemly hopes to close the case on Thursday and there is now every indication that his hopes will be realized. It is quite certain that the end will be reached by Friday. The court of inquiry has engaged quarters for its sessions, after the court closes, in the John R. McLean building, on Lafayette square, opposite the White House. Daily meetings will be held there for the consideration of evidence and they may continue for a month. Admiral Dewey has said that each specification of the precept will be considered separately with the evidence bearing upon it. There will be thus ten verdicts on the charges and a general summing up of the courts judgment as to Schley's conduct during the campaign.

Those opposed to Schley are confident that the findings will be against him on several specifications. His friends feel that he is entitled to a clear vindication.

In any event it seems probable that the case will be called up in Congress. If the judgment of the court should be against him there will be an appeal to Congress for another investigation, one probably involving Admiral Sampson.

If the verdict should favor Schley, Congress will probably be asked that he be given redress for wrongs suffered.

The effect of the inquiry upon the navy appointments is causing some alarm among naval officials of the department. An adverse verdict they believe would cause a storm of disapproval in and out of Congress, from persons who regard Schley as a hero and will tolerate no reflection upon him. These people, it is believed would insist that his conviction was due to a conspiracy, and the officials guilty of it should not be permitted to govern the affairs of the navy.

His vindication would also discredit the department in the minds of those who believe that its officials combined to withhold honors from Admiral Schley. In either case there may be a demand for a general change in the department before the request for the big appropriation that would be made by President Roosevelt for the up-building of the navy will receive favorable consideration.

THIS AFTERNOON'S PROCEEDINGS.

Washington, Nov. 4.—While correcting his testimony Admiral Schley said he did not tell Sigbee on May 26th that the squadron would return to Key West. Sigbee in his testimony says Schley did make such a statement. Schley said he would like to say something on Lieutenant Roy's testimony, to which Lemly replied "Roy is the only witness who has not been contradicted. I don't object," he said.

Rayner indignantly rejoined: "I believe there are about 50 witnesses who have not been contradicted, and moreover I say this remark of the Judge

STRIKE

Is On at Xenia Workhouse Among Thirty-four Prisoners—Too Cold to Work.

Xenia, O., Nov. 4.—A strike is on at the Xenia city workhouse among 35 prisoners. They protested that it was too cold to work in the early morning without fire and won their point. Emboldened by this they made a protest about their food and warned the new superintendent, James Marshall, who took charge only a week ago that they would not work unless he gave them food for breakfast, dinner and supper. He refused and they mutinied. It took a strong force of guards to lock the men in the cells and for three days past they have been fed on bread and water. Some of the prisoners are now weakening and it is thought that they will shortly give in.

DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS INDICATED

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—The success of the Democratic ticket is indicated in tomorrow's municipal and county elections. City and county officers from Mayor to School trustees, with the exception of the Circuit judges and clerks are to be elected. The Democrats have everything in their favor but the developments of the past few days lead many to believe that the race will be closer than was expected. A legislature will also be elected.

PRESIDENT LEAVES WASHINGTON

Washington, Nov. 4.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt left for New York at 11 a. m. today. They were accompanied by Secretary Cortelyou, assistant Secretary Loeb, Henry Pickens, White House Steward, and Casper Whitney, editor of "Outing."

JEFFRIES

THE CHAMPION IN PERFECT CONDITION, SAYS THE DOCTOR.

From Now on He Will Work in the Gymnasium, Bat Bag Punching, and Other Exercise.

San Bernardino Springs, Cal., Nov. 4.—A San Francisco physician who has been here in attendance upon some of his patients has made a physical examination of Champion Jeffries and his verdict was that Jeffries was in perfect condition.

The examination was made shortly after Jim had returned from a long run over the hills. Jeffries will make no more long runs. He will confine his outdoor work to strolling in the mountains and short sprints and baseball. From now on he will work in the gymnasium with a view to gaining speed. He will not do too much boxing for fear of injuring his hands at the eleventh hour. Hand ball, skipping the rope, bag punching and rowing will form his daily menu for training.

THE WEATHER.

Prediction for Newark and vicinity: Fair, continued cold tonight and Tuesday, temperature will fall tonight to about 20 degrees. Temperature extremes at Columbus station 21 years' record for November 4. Maximum 53 degrees in 1898; minimum 23 degrees in 1879; minimum temperature at Columbus in the past 24 hours 26 degrees; maximum temperature, 70 degrees.

MRS. NATION

Prosecutor Asks the Grand Jury at Wheeling to Indict the Kansas "Joint" Smasher.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 4.—Prosecuting Attorney F. W. Nesbitt today asked the criminal grand jury to indict Carrie Nation for inciting riot upon the occasion of her visit to Wheeling early in October. The grand jury is not expected to report until late this evening. Mrs. Nation expects to be indicted, and declares her intention to remain here and stand trial and to make it exceedingly lively for the officials. The fear of Sunday selling saloonists whose places she visited yesterday that she would appear before the grand jury to testify against them was unfounded. She declares that she thinks Wheeling is a very inviting field and that if she remains here a week she will organize a hatchet brigade and personally lead the smashing expedition. The police have been instructed to watch her closely and to arrest her upon the first show of violence.

No Clew Yet.

Columbus, O., Nov. 4.—Up to noon today not the slightest clew has been found as to the whereabouts of C. A. Taylor, alias Charles Lowery the Chardon bank robber, and the men of the "Blinker" Morgan gang. Lowery was rescued from a C. A. & C. train by two pals who threw pepper in the guard's face. One hundred dollars reward for Lowery has been offered.

MR. WU

MAY BE RECALLED BY CHINESE GOVERNMENT

HOW IT WILL AFFECT HIS RESIDENCE HERE

UNLESS RETAINED OFFICIALLY

He Will be Compelled to Leave the United States Under Chinese Exclusion Act.

Washington, Nov. 4.—If Mr. Wu, the Chinese minister is deprived of his official head by his government, and is not given any other position under the Emperor, he will be obliged to leave the United States should a strict construction be placed upon the Chinese exclusion act. This law which will be in operation until next March, when it expires by limitation, excludes all Chinese subjects "except merchants, students, travelers for curiosity or pleasure, teachers and officials."

If Mr. Wu is assigned to some other official place, he could, of course, remain here indefinitely under the specification of "curiosity," for Mr. Wu is the personification of curiosity. Notwithstanding the plain language of the law, if the double contingency of Mr. Wu's loss of office without designation to another place and his determination to remain here, were announced, it is scarcely probable that the treasury department would order him summarily deported. An exception would probably be made in his case out of regard for his distinguished services for this government during the Chinese troubles of last year.

It is intimated in department circles here that Mr. Wu's call will not altogether be a surprise at the office of Secretary of State, in fact, that is was expected. Our Chinese Commissioner Mr. Rockhill, is said to have hinted to the imperial government that Mr. Wu's retirement from Washington would be regarded as not altogether a disaster. The administration did not take at all kindly to Mr. Wu's lobbying last winter against the re-enactment of the exclusion act, when that measure was under discussion in committee.

The authorities fear that if the law is re-enacted at all, it will only be done so after a bitter fight. The tremendous influence of the Pacific Mail Steamship company will be exerted against it, and many influential men on the coast who are large employees of labor will also do their best to prevail upon Congress to allow the Chinese to come in unrestrictedly, or under only partial restriction.

TWELFTH DEATH

MISS TOPPAN'S FRIENDS THINK SHE IS INSANE.

Most Famous Case in Massachusetts May Sink Into Insignificance. The Evidence.

Boston, Nov. 4.—General J. H. Whitney, who probably knows more about the evidence in the Toppan poisoning case than any other state officer connected with it, says that when the State presents its evidence the Robinson poisoning case, the most famous in the criminal history of the State, will sink into insignificance. General Whitney admits that when Miss Toppan was arrested the evidence against her was not complete but the officers feared suicide and that precipitated the arrest.

It is now asserted that in January, 1900, Mrs. Myra Connors, matron of the Episcopal Theological school at Cambridge, died while under Miss Toppan's care. Dr. Herbert McIntire believes he saw evidence of strychnine poisoning in this case. He treated her for peritonitis, but she grew steadily worse under Miss Toppan's care. This makes the twelfth death. Miss Toppan's friends assert that she must be insane.

MADMAN

Armed With Baseball Bat, Attacks Sleeping Companions—One Killed and Eight Injured.

New York, Nov. 4.—In an insane frenzy John Wade, an inmate of a lodging house at 108 Debevoise street, Williamsburg, attacked a dozen of his companions, occupying the same room, while they slept. He was armed with a baseball bat, and before he was subdued had killed one man, mortally wounded two others and seriously wounded six.

Wade was locked up in the Stagg street police station, the greatest effort being necessary on the part of the officers to subdue him.

His homicidal mania seized him suddenly. He found a baseball bat in the corner near his cot, and, creeping silently to the bedside of his neighbor, John Young, dealt him a blow on the head that fractured his skull and caused almost instant death.

The blow aroused the other sleepers, Wade had sprung among them, and, wielding his weapon to right and left, dashed up and down the ward.

Charles Steinbacher and Henry Liebmann were knocked unconscious. Men shrieked for help. Some of them threw themselves on Wade, receiving blow after blow, but finally subdued him.

WEDDING ON WEDNESDAY.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The wedding of Adjutant General Corbin will take place at noon Wednesday and will be a brilliant social event. Miss Edyth Hatton, the bride, will have no attendants at the wedding and will be given away by Senator John F. Jones, an old friend of her father.

FIRST SNOW STORM.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 4.—The first snow storm of the season occurred in Pittsburg and vicinity between 9 and 10 o'clock this morning. In the suburbs roofs and fences were whitened, while grass plots were beautifully carpeted with "the real thing."

Betting is Even.

New York, Nov. 4.—The Democratic campaign managers in Brooklyn have decided upon a radical change in their plans. The original program ended with rallies held Saturday night. The change provides for a final rally tonight. Mr. Shepard will speak at several meetings. District leaders have been instructed to "whoop things up." The fusionists will meet the Shepard move. Betting is even today and Brooklyn will be the great battleground tomorrow.

ENGAGEMENT DENIED.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Nelson W. Aldrich emphatically denies the story that Wm. G. Aldrich, son of Senator Aldrich, and Miss Eleanor Morgan of Charlottesville, are engaged to be married.

AFFIRMED

Action of Lower Court in Case Against Biddle Brothers—Complications Certain to Arise.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 4.—The Supreme Court this morning rendered an opinion affirming the action of the lower court in the appeal of the Biddle Brothers, who were found guilty of the murder of Groceriesman Kahney. It is believed that the doom of the murderers is now sealed, notwithstanding Governor Stone had through misapprehension issued their death warrant while the appeal in supreme court was pending and was compelled to withdraw the prematurely issued warrants. By some the opinion is held that the governor cannot legally re-issue the warrants and that complications are certain to intervene.

LARGEST WOMAN DEAD.

Xenia, O., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Jane Mendonhall, one of the largest women in the state, is dead at her home South of Xenia. In good health she weighed 480 pounds and at the time of her death, after six weeks illness she weighed 423 pounds. No casket could be found in stock large enough to contain the remains and a special order had to be given.

HOW COL. KILBOURNE STANDS

In the Estimation of the Workingmen Who Personally Know And Respect Him.

Why the Columbus Trades and Labor Assembly and Building Trades Council Conferred That Honor on Him.

Columbus, O., Oct. 28. — The reckless managers of the Republican campaign, who hesitate at either falsehood nor slander, have issued a statement that Colonel James Kilbourne, the Democratic candidate for governor, is the enemy of organized labor and of labor unions. The representatives of union labor in this city authorize the following statement of facts and truth, refuting each and every one of the Republican committee's falsehoods:

In 1899, J. K. Turner, manager of a trust espionage bureau at Cleveland, the home of Senator Hanna, wrote Colonel Kilbourne, a letter asking him to contribute money for the purpose of setting spies on the labor congress which met at Detroit, under the call of President Gompers, Dec. 11, 1899. To this letter Colonel Kilbourne responded as follows:

Columbus, O., Nov. 28, 1899. J. K. Turner, Manager The Manufacturers' Information Bureau, American Trust Building, Cleveland, Ohio: Sir—Your letter of November 22d, received during my absence from home, has just come to my attention. The proposition it contains seems to me so infamous that I shall give the letter and my reply to the public press. We have never engaged spies in our business, and certainly shall not do so against the most defenseless class with whom we have to deal.

Why should not the employees of the trusts organize as well as their employers? In whose prosperity are we most concerned? The people of this country are justly alarmed at the rapid growth of great monopolistic combinations, and none more justly so than their workingmen, who, single-handed, would be the easiest victims of their power. Why should they not organize?

No, we will not pay you $15.00 to have the report of your spies on their secret sessions, and we hope there is not a manufacturer in the land who is so mean and low-spirited as to join in your dirty work.

The Kilbourne & Jacobs Manufacturing Company.

JAMES KILBOURNE,

President and General Manager.

The estimation in which Colonel Kilbourne is held by the members and leaders of organized labor is shown by the fact that he was unanimously elected an honorary member of the Columbus Trades and Labor Assembly, and the Columbus Building and Trades Council, and these bodies, jointly representing organized labor in the city of Columbus, presented him with an engrossed set of resolutions tendering him their heartfelt thanks for his noble defense of their rights, as follows:

"Resolutions unanimously adopted by the Columbus Trades and Labor Assembly and the Columbus Building Trades Council, in recognition of Col. James Kilbourne's defense of the rights of workingmen.

"Whereas, a letter giving evidence of a large conspiracy against organized labor has been received by Col. James Kilbourne, President and General Manager of the Kilbourne & Jacobs Manufacturing Company, of this city, from one J. K. Turner, Manager of the 'Manufacturers' Information Bureau' of Cleveland, Ohio, seeking the co-operation and support of the aforesaid Colonel Kilbourne in a proposition which said Turner, on behalf of said Information Bureau, agrees, through the operation of a general spy system, to furnish said employers with accounts of the proceedings of secret sessions of organized labor organizations; and response thereto as follows: (See letter as above); and,

"Whereas, such a vigorous repudiation of the aforesaid proposition, and, incidentally of all conspiracies against the liberties of workingmen, together with its publication and exposure, coming from such a source, is of inestimable value and benefit to labor's cause:

"Therefore be it resolved, That, on behalf of organized labor of this city of Columbus, this, the Columbus Trades and Labor Assembly, acting in conjunction with the Columbus Building Trades Council, do hereby tender to Col. Kilbourne a heartfelt vote of thanks for his noble defense of our rights and interests in this and other instances too numerous to mention.

"Secondly, That we extend to him a hearty invitation to honor us with his presence at some of our future meetings.

"Thirdly, That a committee be appointed to present Colonel Kilbourne with a copy of these resolutions, bearing the seals of the Columbus Trades and Labor Assembly and the Columbus Building Trades Council, and the signatures of the President and Secretary of each organization.

"Fourthly, As a further expression of our appreciation and gratitude, the aforesaid Colonel Kilbourne be, and is hereby, elected an honorary member of the aforesaid Columbus Trades and Labor Assembly and the Columbus Building Trades Council.

(Seal) "JOHN F. MCNAMEE, For the Columbus Trades and Labor Assembly.

(Seal) "HENRY H. KARCH, For the Columbus Building Trades Council.

"Committee on Resolutions, "J. B. MAAS, Pres. pro tem.

"WILL F. HAUCK, Secretary, Columbus Trades and Labor Assembly.

"A. J. LOCKHART, Pres. "HENRY WORTHINGTON, Secretary Columbus Building Trades Council."

The Harmonious Quartette.

"Let well enough alone"—Senator Hanna.
"Let well enough alone"—Governor
Nash.
"Let well enough alone"—Senator
Foraker.
"Let well enough alone"—Senator
Nippert.

All four of these sweet singers are in office and want the people to elect them again. They are sweetly situated and want to be "let alone,"
whether taxes are justly or unjustly levied.
When the scale of this plaintive
song is run, with Hanna as basso profundo, Nash as baritone, Nippert as tenor and Foraker as screaming treble,
all the state house barnacles and Republican office holders generally join in the grand chorus:
"Let well enough alone."
We're happy, fat and sassy where we are.

Laboring men should stand by a friend. It is the only way they can exalt themselves. Too long have they been upholding their enemies. Now
they have a chance to strike a blow
for themselves and at the same time
gain a point against their great enemy
—the trusts. They way to do it is to vote for their friend, Col. James Kilbourne, for governor, tomorrow.

The Republican organ makes frantic appeals for Democrats to vote for Lambert and other Republican candidates, but dictates that no Republican shall vote for popular "Billy" Miller.
Yet there is not a candidate on either ticket who can and will be so beneficial to Newark city's local interests as hustling "Billy" Miller in the State Senate.

THE SAFE WAY

FOR VOTERS TO MARK THEIR BALLOTS

So That They Will be Counted and Not Thrown Out.

The American-Tribune has resorted to deception in its desperate effort to catch Democratic votes for Judge C.
W. Seward and if the American-Tribune's "instructions" are followed, the Democrat who attempts to "compliment" Seward with a vote, simply votes for Seward and for no other candidate for Common Pleas Judge.

There are four candidates for Common Pleas Judge, two of whom are to be elected. Under the Democratic emblem, the Rooster, appear the names of John David Jones and Emmett M.
Wickham, two able and thoroughly tried judges, who have always in their rulings been just and honorable. On the Republican ticket appear the names of Chas. W. Seward and George Coyner.

In order to "compliment" Seward
and one or two other Republicans, the Tribune would have the Democratic voter first place an X mark under the Rooster and an X mark to the left of each Republican for whom he intends to vote. It is a very neat scheme, but how does it work?

The man who "compliments" Seward as the Tribune suggests, votes for Seward alone and for neither of the Democratic Judges. Bear this in mind.
If an X mark is placed in the circle
under the Rooster and also at the left of Seward's name that vote counts for Seward and for neither of the Democratic candidates for Judge.

When you enter the voting booth tomorrow, remember this effort of the American-Tribune to deceive the people into voting for Seward and for neither of the Democratic candidates.
There are but two safe ways of voting
and they are as follows.

(1.) Place an X mark in the circle under the emblem which means a straight vote, or

(2.) Place an X mark in the small space to the left of every man for whom you wish to vote.

There is no chance of a ticket marked in either of the above mentioned ways of being thrown out, but the X mark under the rooster is the shortest and safest method.

The Tribune has been dishonest in trying to fool the people but the voters of Newark and Licking count-should not be deceived. Let all Democrats resent such methods of campaigning by marking their ballots with a simple X under the Rooster tomorrow. Such a ballot counts for every Democratic candidate and such a ticket will be counted as the voter intends.

It seems to be hard sledding for the Republican organ and the party managers to get votes for John Lambert for Commissioner. He is by no means a popular man or such frantic efforts would not be made to get votes for him. And as he has never voted for Democrats, why should Democrats vote for him.

EVERY NEWARK CITIZEN IS IN-TERESTED IN BILLY MILLER'S ELECTION.

The local interests of Newark city will be immensely benefited by electing "Billy" Miller to the State Senate.
He will be able to secure liberal appropriations for our Encampment Grounds, while the Republican candidate, who is a resident of another county, will be indifferent and have no personal interest in the matter.
Everybody knows that "Billy" Miller has always been a champion of the Newark Encampment, and that he will be especially active in procuring appropriation for the further improvement of the grounds which is very necessary. Every citizen of Newark is interested in this improvement and for that reason they should secure it by seeing that "Billy" Miller's majority in this city will be a plenty.

ALL SORTS OF FALSEHOODS AND FORGERIES WILL BE SPRUNG ON THE EVE OF THE ELECTION BY THE REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE
AGAINST COLONEL KILBOURNE.
NO MAN SHOULD BE DECEIVED BY THEM.

Every Democrat should regard it
as a sacred duty to vote the straight
ticket tomorrow because it is the best
ticket. And none should fail to vote.

AN EASY TASK.

It is an easy task for the voters of Ohio to turn the men out of power and office, who arrogantly and insolently tell them that they take no interest in their home affairs, and have no care
as to their unjust and inequitable taxes.

Can it be possible that the intelligent voters of the state, after the default of the Republican leaders to even discuss state affairs, will miss the opportunity to hurl from the offices
they are unworthy to hold, the bosses who thus defy them and scoff at their complaints?

Will any man stay away from the polls under such circumstances? Will any man fail to cast his vote against the men who merely make commerce
of office and politics?

If they do have little care indeed for their own interests and those of their fellowmen.

VOTE STRAIGHT

Democrats of Licking Urged to Put
An X Mark Under the Rooster
Early Tomorrow.

Democrats of Licking county, the time is almost at hand for you to again go to the polls and do your duty. That you will do it, there is no question.
The Democrats of Old Licking can always be relied upon to stand by the party and while the present campaign has been an unusually quiet one, the fact must not be overlooked that it is important in that a governor of the state is to be chosen and a successor to Joseph B. Foraker in the United States Senate is to be elected by the legislature.

Go to the polls early tomorrow morning and vote for Colonel Kilbourne, the farmers' and the workmen's friend, and vote for members of the general assembly who are pledged to elect a man as United States Senator who is opposed to the Trusts and to Imperialism.

On the eve of the election, all sorts of unreliable stories about candidates are circulated by the opposition. Do not believe everything you hear in the heat of a campaign but sift every story to the bottom.

The candidates on the Democratic ticket this year are all capable, honest and honorable men. Stand by your party and by the glorious principles of Democracy by putting an X mark
under the rooster early tomorrow morning.

Mr. C. W. Seward is running for Common Pleas Judge. He has been very industrious making personal appeals for votes. As the Advocate has already stated he has requested Democrats to put a cross opposite his name
after they have put their X mark under the rooster. The effect of this would be a vote for Mr. Seward, but not a vote for either of the Democratic candidates. Of course hundreds of voters, not familiar with the law, do not understand the effect of this marking their ballots. But Mr. Seward does. Now, should a candidate for an office wherein the strictest integrity and fairness are absolutely essential,
resort to such methods of getting votes?

The large vote that Mr. Sid Levingston will receive for county commissioner in this city tomorrow causes great consternation among the side editors of the American-Tribune. They see plainly that Mr. Levingston, on account of his many personal friends,
will far outstrip their own unpopular candidate.

Democrats, Be Not Deceived.

The American-Tribune appreciates that the popularity of the Democratic candidates for county offices far exceeds that of the Republican candidates. This is the case in every instance from the top to the bottom of both tickets. The superior popular popularity of the Democrats causes the organ to plead hard with Republican voters not to vote for any Democratic candidate on November 5. Yet the same organ is resorting to every sort of cunning and deceitful methods to reduce Democrats to vote for the hide-bound partisans on the Republican ticket.

Democrats, don't be deceived or misled by this sly game to elect Republicans to office.

A FALSE AND COWARDLY ATTACK.

A shameful and malicious attack made on Mr. James Redman, the Democratic candidate for infirmary director, containing a tissue of falsehoods
regarding the management of the institution, appears in the columns of the American-Tribune over an anonymous signature. The fact that the irresponsible creature who makes the charges
on the eve of election is too cowardly to sign his own name to the article is quite sufficient to stamp it as being wholly unworthy of belief.

The fact is that no county infirmary
in the entire state is managed better
—more economically in expenditure or more humanely in the care of the unfortunate inmates—than that of Licking county. The State Board of Charities has verified this fact on more than one occasion during the present management.

As to the economy of the institution's management, the belief is expressed by Auditor Pusey and others
familiar with its financial condition,
that no tax levy will be needed next year to meet the expenditures.

In a word, the financial condition of the Licking county infirmary has never been better in the entire history of the institution than it is at the present time.

Let the coward who wrote the American-Tribune article have the courage and manhood to come out over his own signature if he has any facts to justify his charges.

But he has none. It is only a trick on the eve of election.

There is "no politics" in office when Republican candidates want Democratic votes. Oh, no! The politics comes in when the Republican leaders apply the lash to their voters to prevent them from voting for a Democrat.

"I SHALL SAY NOTHING ABOUT
STATE AFFAIRS."—GOVERNOR
NASH AT DELAWARE.

MERELY MALICIOUS FALSEHOODS

The abortive attempts of the Republican press, led by such notorious and reckless papers as the Ohio State Journal, Cleveland Leader and the small fry organs, to make it appear that Col.
Kilbourne has been evading his just share of taxes, has fallen by its own weight, and the utter inability of his accusers to offer an iota of testimony
to sustain their malicious charges.

The record, when appealed to, refutes every statement and insinuation made, but of course the accusers have refused to publish the facts when confronted with them.

Instead of evading a single tax responsibility, either as a member of the Kilbourne-Jacobs company or as a private citizen, he complied fully and promptly with every requirement of the law, and his returns were inspected and passed upon both by the city and county boards of equalization, a majority of whom are Republicans, each of which inspected the property returned, and pronounced them as in the fullest compliance with the law.

The property returns of the Kilbourne and Jacobs company was $250,000 in round numbers, and was proportionally the largest return made by any manufacturing establishment in the city of Columbus, all of them, however, making fair and honest returns, as testified by the two boards of review and equalization.

Colonel Kilbourne is a man of moderate fortune, but his personal return for taxation was larger than many men known to be several times more wealthy than he.

In short, the boards found from his returns that he had complied with every requirement of the law and paid
his full share of taxes.

The people of Columbus, who know and respect Colonel Kilbourne, know that he is proverbially honest in all his dealings, both public and private,
and that he is scrupulously honest
in paying his taxes as his grocery bill's.
He believes in honesty in every relation in life, and was never known to evade or attempt to evade any just obligation.

THEY HAVE A CHOICE.

The Republican leaders of Ohio do not propose to take any action to relieve the people of the burdens and grievances of which they complain.
To do so would put them out of favor with the trusts and corporations which furnish them with campaign funds.

As between the friendship of the people and the trusts they prefer the latter, and the sooner the people realize this and take action, the better.

AS TO "GERRYMANDERING."

The Republican organs and campaign managers have a great deal to say about the possibility of the Democrats "gerrymandering" the state for congressmen if the Democrats should gain control of the legislature. We have had a Republican gerrymander
for the last ten years. By this iniquitous gerrymander the Republicans
now have 17 of the Ohio congressmen and the Democrats only 4. This is the Republican idea of fairness. If they could take all the Ohio congressmen
they would consider it still more fair and right. An equitable division of the Ohio congressmen between the two parties, in proportion to the vote cast
by each party, would give the Democrats 10 of the 21 districts. The Democrats of Ohio should turn out to the polls at the coming election and vote to undo this infamous gerrymander
and in favor of a fair division of the congressional districts.

In fact Democrats should realize that the Trusts and their Republican supporters only want one political party in this country. They should realize that these Republican influences would not allow Democrats to vote at all if they could help it.

Laboring men should stand by a friend. It is the only way they can exalt themselves. Too long have they
been upholding their enemies. Now
they have a chance to strike a blow
for themselves and at the same time
gain a point against their great enemy
—the trusts. The way to do it is to vote for their friend, Col. James Kil-
bourne for governor, tomorrow.

The American-Tribune begs Democrats to vote for Lambert for commissioner and in the same breath urges Republicans to stand solidly by their party and cast a complimentary vote for Senator Miller. If it is a good thing for Republicans to stand together the same is equally true of Democrats.

THE FLAG

Colonel Kilbourne's Grand Tribute to the Emblem of Freedom.

O, my fellow citizens, descendants of those who thought no sacrifice too great in the cause of Liberty, and who desired it not for themselves alone, but for the oppressed of every land, and who made our flag the emblem of freedom! O, comrades of the civil war, who in Freedom's cause followed that flag on many a weary march, stood by it under fire of shot and shell and helped to carry it to victory; let us keep it so pure, its stars and stripes so unstained by wars of conquest or oppression, that every one who carries it will proudly die for it, and God Almighty bless the cause for which it stands.—Col. James Kilbourne.

TEN YEARS.

Ten years of Republican control of the state;
Ten years of increasing tax-burdens;
Ten years of broken promises;
Ten years of increased official salaries;
Ten years of unequal taxation;
Ten years of increased and useless
offices;
Ten years of extravagant expenditures;
Ten years of political bossism;
Ten years of disregard of the taxpayers' rights;
Ten years of official barnacleism;
Ten years of class legislation and policy;
Ten years of favoritism for wealthy
corporations;
Ten years disregard of the people's rights.

This is the record of the Republican leaders and bosses in Ohio, during which they have waxed fat at the expense of honest toilers.

Isn't it about time to turn over a new leaf?

Isn't it about time to make a change?
Go to the polls tomorrow and answer these questions.

Every intelligent man in Newark regardless of his political views, knows how invaluable a hustler like "Billy" Miller in the Senate will be for every local interest beneficial to our city, for this very reason scores of Republicans will vote for him tomorrow, and they will show their good sense and independence by so doing.

"PURCHASABLE REPUBLICANS"

This Is the Foul Calumny Applied to Honest Voters

Who Formerly Voted the Republican Ticket, But Who Now
Refuse to be Owned any Longer by Bosses and Voted
As Cattle to Enrich the Trusts.

The American-Tribune being hard pushed for arguments to get votes for its unpopular candidate for county commissioner, falsely charges that Mr.

Levingston, the Democratic candidate,
was nominated by the aid of "purchaseable Republican" votes in the city of Newark. Mr. Levingston being a man of very moderate means, had no money to purchase a nomination. But there is another and still better answer to this falsehood of the American-Tribune's to get Democratic votes.

It should be remembered that the city of Newark gave the largest majority for the entire Democratic ticket at the last spring election that has ever been given in the city's history. This result was caused by the fact that hundreds of voters in the city of Newark who had previously been Republican in politics became tired of being driven to the polls like cattle and voting for the ticket made for them by the trust leaders and bosses of the party. These voters became tired of being owned by bosses who gave them
no voice in making party nominations,
and they rebelled against being voted any longer to enrich the trusts. For this reason they openly came over to the Democracy at last spring's election and voted the ticket as straight as old-timers in the party.

Having voted the Democratic ticket
at the last spring election, by which the average Democratic majority in this city was increased to over 500,
and intending to vote the Democratic ticket straight this fall, these former Republican voters were glad of an opportunity to belong to a party where they could have equal participation in making nominations for public offices.
They were tired of having a ticket
made for them by self-constituted party leaders, and hence they were glad to have the opportunity and right to vote at the Democratic primaries.
And these scores of voters are denounced by the organ of the Republican party as "Purchasable Republican Voters." It is a calumny that they will resent on next Tuesday by voting the entire Democratic ticket.
They are no longer "purchasable."
Neither are they owned by the bosses of the Republican party. They are free men and they will vote as such on next Tuesday.

They are enthusiastic supporters of Colonel Kilbourne and will cast their votes for him on election day. Let the organ continue to denounce and slander them. It will only increase the size of the Democratic majority for the whole ticket.

COL. KILBOURNE'S LABOR RECORD.

The Republican State Executive Committee, with the aid of convicts in the penitentiary, Republican penitentiary convict labor contractors and unprincipled Hars, has filled the Republican newspapers with the lying charges that Colonel James Kilbourne is the enemy of organized labor.

If this is true it is likely that the labor unions of Columbus would have adopted this resolution in 1900?

Fourthly. As a further expression of our appreciation and gratitude, the aforesaid Colonel Kilbourne be, and is hereby elected an honorary member of the aforesaid Columbus Trades and Labor Assembly and the Columbus Building Trades Council.

(SEAL)

Columbus Trades and Labor Assembly.

A. J. LOCKHART, President.

HENRY WORTHINGTON, Sec.

Columbus Building Trades Council.

This resolution was passed because Colonel Kilbourne publicly refused to join with the trusts, to destroy the union labor organizations of the country, which culminated in the Steel Trust Strike of last summer.

This and other Trusts are now trying to induce the working men to vote against Kilbourne because he is their friend, and because he would not join them in trying to crush out union labor.

See full report of the labor leaders pertaining to Col. Kilbourne's labor record, printed in another column.

PARTISAN MENDACITY.

In its Sunday issue the State Journal said: "Col. Kilbourne's denial of the charges made against him will lose him the election. He should have kept silent."

The charges to which it referred first appeared in the State Journal and afterward in the Republican press of the State, and charged: 1. That Col.
Kilbourne committed perjury by making a false tax return. 2. That he was the enemy and oppressor of workingmen. 3. That he dealt almost exclusively in convict made goods.

In a speech at the Columbus Auditorium, Col. Kilbourne, presenting facts and figures, disproved each of these charges to the satisfaction of the 6,000 people in the audience.

A man named Rife, who wrote the lying charges and who was present, admitted to other newspaper men present that Kilbourne was right and that the charges were false. The next morning he declared in the Journal:
"Kilbourne admits the truth of the charges against him."

When the other newspaper men asked Rife why he made such a statement, he said: "We (Republican writers and editors) can get a Democrat every time he comes up for office. The first thing we do is to charge him with all sorts of crimes and moral obliquities. If he does not deny them we show him guilty by his silence. If he does deny them we show that he is guilty because no honest man would deny such things if they were false.
Then we give him another dose and keep him guessing."

It is from this vile and infamous source that the brood of false, malicious and scurrilous charges against Col. Kilbourne emanate, which fill the Republican papers—all of them lies and many of them forgeries.

Is there a single decent, honest, high-minded voter in this city or country who will participate in this work of assassination of character? If so he is to be pitied.

Every Democrat should regard it
as a sacred duty to vote the straight
ticket tomorrow because it is the best
ticket. And none should fail to vote.

MANSEFIELD

WILL COME TO NEWARK ON NEXT THURSDAY

To Investigate Natural Gas With a View of Granting Newark Men a Franchise in That City.

The following taken from the Mansfield News' report of the City Council meeting held in that city on last Friday night, wherein the application of Martin J. Flanagan, F. A. Bolton and J. T. English for a franchise to lay pipes and furnish Mansfield with natural gas came up, will be read with interest by Newark people:

Bill No. 39, an ordinance granting to Martin J. Flanagan, F. A. Bolton and J. T. English a franchise to lay pipes and furnish the city with natural gas for twenty-five years, was given a second reading. There seemed to have been a change of heart over the natural gas business among the councilmen since the last meeting and everybody was apparently in high good humor over the thing. Possibly it was the prospective free junketing trip which was in view. The council, it will be remembered, at a recent meeting granted a franchise to the Logan Natural Gas and Fuel company, of Lancaster, but they went right on with the proposition to have a second company come in and tear up the streets. The lobby watched the council as though it feared that there was something wrong with the dads. It was announced that the representatives of the new natural gas company had invited the council to go to Newark and see their gas there. Half a dozen councilmen nearly fell over themselves in their scramble to make a motion to accept the invitation, it having been stated that the gas people would pay the council's expenses to Newark and return. It was finally decided to go to Newark next Thursday. Nothing was said about having representatives of the local newspapers accompany the expedition. After the meeting citizens who were in the lobby suggested that it would have been very proper under the circumstances to have had the members of the press along in view of the fact that the council had already granted one natural gas franchise. One business man suggested that possibly the reporters might pick up some valuable information for the citizens even if the members of the council did not want any light on matters. The idea of granting a second gas franchise is causing a deal of talk about town, but the council seems bent on doing it according to the indications. Incidentally it might be stated that there is reason to think that there is fun ahead in regard to the matter. The proposed natural gas franchise for the second company went over after being read a second time. It will come up for a third reading at the next meeting.

An Advocate reporter saw Mr. Flanagan at the Bolton House today, and he said that he was satisfied that the franchise as prayed for in Mansfield would be granted. He was confident that his company would be able to supply all the gas required and at a price that would be within the reach of everyone. He said that the matter of the representatives of the Mansfield papers not being included in the invitation to the council to come to Newark, was an oversight, and that the newspaper men would be here on Thursday. Martin is a great friend of the newspapers, and is held in high esteem by all the "boys."

CONVICT'S FRIENDS

Abandoned Their Stolen Rig Near St. Louisville, this County.

Further Details of the Sensational Rescue of a Notorious Bank Robber From a Train Near Columbus—Handcuffs Filed From Prisoner's Wrists.

Marshal Vogelmeier Sunday morning received word from St. Louisville that a rig had been found near that village which was thought to have been stolen. He had previously been telephoned a description of the horse and survey that had been stolen by pals of C. A. Taylor, who sensationally escaped from Penitentiary Guard Bowman, on a train near Columbus Saturday afternoon.

The Marshal and Deputy Sheriff William Linke drove to St. Louisville and found that it was the same rig. It was brought to Newark and placed in Whitehead's livery barn.

In the survey was the file used to file off the prisoner's handcuffs, a large monkey-wrench, and a vest. There was no trace to be found of the fugitives. Officers James McCrum and Henry Rinehart took a freight train and went to Utica but their search was alike futile.

A telegram to the Advocate on Saturday afternoon told of the sensational rescue of a convict on a train near Columbus at 1:45 p. m. that day. The following gives further particulars of the daring rescue of the prisoner:

Charles Lowry, one of the most desperate bank robbers in the United States, made a sensational escape from the custody of his guard aboard the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus train from the north Saturday afternoon.

Aided by two pals, one of whom threw red pepper in the eyes of Guard Bowman, in whose custody Lowry was placed, and the second of whom stood off the passengers with a brace of huge revolvers, Lowry and his friends managed to get clear away.

The bell-rope was pulled by one of them and the engineer stopped the train just north of Columbus. Fortunately for the plans of the robbers they alighted on the road leading north from Columbus to Westerville. A passing dairyman was thrown out of his rig and the trio drove north at a rapid pace.

The conductor brought the train in to Columbus and the police were notified. Detectives and Deputy Sheriff were sent out on the trail. It is presumed that they had their plans all laid and probably safe in concealment by this time.

Lowry is one of the best known criminals in the United States. For years he was a member of the Blinky Morgan gang, and his sister Bessie is supposed to have married Morgan. At all events, she was known as Mrs. Morgan, and was a very active and important member of the gang. When Morgan was hanged years ago she and her brother both dropped out of sight though here and there the police hear stories of desperate deeds which reminded them of Charley Lowry and his sister.

Lowry's last appearance in Ohio was at Geauga county some months ago, when he and his pal robbed a bank in most approved style. They took an interurban car for Cleveland, but were detected on the way to the city. After a hard fight Lowry was captured, though his pals escaped.

It soon became apparent that Lowry had friends with plenty of money. Bond in the sum of $10,000 cash was offered for him, and when this failed the jail officials were offered munificent bribes. Efforts were made to arrange an escape for him, but he was tried, found guilty and sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary under the name of C. A. Taylor. He was identified positively, however, as Charley Lowry the notorious bank robber.

During the six months he has spent in the penitentiary he has been a good prisoner and when a subpoena came for him not long ago to testify in a criminal case at Canton there was no hesitation in permitting him to go. He was placed in charge of Guard Bowman, one of the most trustworthy guards in the institution, and taken to Canton, where he gave his testimony.

Although there is no evidence that he had communicated with his former pals while on this trip it is evident that the plan for his escape had been carefully prearranged. Bowman had handcuffed Lowry for the trip home and the prisoner was well behaved on the trip. Just north of Columbus however, a pair of well-dressed though desperate-looking men, who had got on the train at some northern station and taken seats near Lowry and Bowman, rose from their places. One of them pulled the bell-rope, while his partner threw a handful of red pepper in the guards eyes. Then one of the accomplices drew his revolvers, while the other assisted the hand-cuffed prisoner to the door of the car. When the train stopped they jumped off, as stated, Guard Bowman followed them, though evidently suffering great pain from his eyes, but found it impossible to do anything, and returned to Columbus.

IDENTIFIED

The Rig Found Near St. Louisville. Columbus Livery Stable Employee Starts Home With Horse.

This morning Ben Converse, an employee in Harry Yeiser's livery stable, of Columbus, came to Newark and positively identified the rig found by Marshal Vogelmeier near St. Louisville as the one hired by E. L. Horney and which was stolen from him by Charles A. Taylor, alias Lowry, in making his escape from a penitentiary guard, near Columbus.

The mare is a bay and was hitched to a phaeton.

Converse left for Columbus this driving through to his destination. At Utica Patrolmen McCrum and Rinehart learned from the man who has charge of the water tank south of Utica that he had seen two suspicious characters run across the fields near he officers went to the place, but the men had taken to the woods, and all efforts to locate them failed.

Mr. Horney, whose rig was taken by the escaping robber and his pals, is a partner of Mr. T. M. Edmiston of his city. Mr. Edmiston in talking of he case to the Advocate said that the report published in a Columbus paper to the effect that Mr. Horney had been robbed by the men is not true. Revolvers were leveled at him, and Mr. Horney was obliged to turn over the ivory rig, but he was not robbed and no personal injury was done to him.

JUST BEFORE VOTING

Cursory Survey of the Political Situation in Ohio.

BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT OF VICTORY.

Legislature to Be Chosen Will Elect a United States Senator and Revise the Congressional Map of the State. Shrinkage in the Registration of the Four Principal Cities.

Columbus, O., Nov. 4.—After a brief but spirited political campaign, the voters of Ohio have been aroused to a pitch of intense interest in the outcome of the election now at hand.

The Democrats confidently claim Franklin county, in which both Governor Nash and Colonel Kilbourne reside. There is some opposition to Governor Nash on account of his appointments, and it is claimed that the popularity of Colonel Kilbourne, especially among the workmen, will add strength to the Democratic ticket.

The Republicans can lose both Cuyahoga and Franklin counties and still have a majority in the legislature for senator if they carry Hamilton and Lucas counties, as seems probable. The disaffection in Lucas county does not apply so much to the legislative ticket as it does to Governor Nash on account of his attitude toward the proposed Ohio centennial exposition at Toledo.

Democrats in Hamilton county claim they will elect part of their ticket. This may not affect the legislative ticket, but if the Democrats should elect part of the county officers there it would materially affect the state ticket.

There is considerable shortage in the registration of the four leading cities, and the greatest falling off is in Toledo, where the registration is less than two years ago, and very much less than last year. The campaign this year has not only been much shorter, but also much more quiet than two years ago when less was at stake than now. The legislature then had no senator to elect. The legislature next January will elect a successor to Senator Foraker and redistrict the state for congressional purposes. The election this year is for a full state ticket and county tickets, as well as members of the legislature.

The managers on both sides are more reluctant about giving out estimates than usual. This is due to the uncertainty as to the shortage in the vote on both sides, and the Republicans say it prevents them from predicting as closely as usual the extent of their plurality. Secretary Gilliam, vice chairman and secretary of the Democratic state committee, says: "We have no definite claims to make. We simply desire to state that every indication points to the trend of sentiment being strongly towards the Democratic party in the present contest. It is conceded that almost all the larger cities will go Democratic, and this would probably be sufficient to insure Democratic victory for both the state and legislative tickets."

During the last half of the century the Democrats have elected only four governors, and with a single exception they were elected in years following presidential elections which have for that reason become known as "off years." Allen was elected after the presidential election of 1872; Bishop after that of 1876, and Campbell after that of 1888. Hoadley was elected on a local liquor issue preceding the presidential election of 1884. Democrats claim that in addition to the disaffection among the Republicans in Cuyahoga, Franklin, Lucas and other counties, the traditional "off year" conditions exist as in former years. These conditions did not prevail in 1881 when the death of Garfield is said to have affected the result. They did not prevail in 1885 when Foraker was first elected governor, but that was said to be due to the fact that Cleveland was then President, and the disaffection over federal and other appointments was quite pronounced among the Democrats. These conditions did not affect the election of McKinley as governor the first time in 1893, and the same reasons were assigned then as in 1885. The most notable exception to the rule was in 1897 when Governor Bushnell was re-elected.

In Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The campaign in Philadelphia has attracted more than ordinary interest, in consequence of the fusion of Democrats and independent Republicans on candidates for the two state offices, state treasurer and justice of the supreme court. The independent Republicans, organized under the name of the Union party, joined with the Democrats in the nomination of E. A. Coray, Jr. (a Republican) for state treasurer, and Herman Yerkes (a Democrat) for supreme court justice against the regular Republican nominees Frank G. Harris for state treasurer and W. P. Potter for supreme judge. The fusion leaders are making strong predictions that their candidates will carry the state, while the regular Republican leaders express confidence in bringing their candidates safely through. Two years ago Barnett was elected state treasurer by 110,000 majority over Creasy. The campaign in Philadelphia has been unusually active, the interest centering in the fight for district attorney. The regular Republicans backed by the city and state administration forces and United States Senators Penrose and Quay, placed in nomination John Weaver for district attorney, while the Union party and municipal league named the present incumbent, P. F. Rothermel, a Republican. A faction of the Democratic party refused to join the reformers and nominated William Wilkins Carr, Democrat, and postmaster of the city during the Cleveland administration.

Many prominent Democrats, among them ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison, have been active participants in the campaign in the interest of Rothermel.

In New York City.

New York, Nov. 4.—One feature of the local political campaign was the active part taken in it by the pastors of the churches Sunday when 21 pastors and two leaders of independent church societies advertised themselves to speak on the issues of the election. All the Protestant pastors reported except two talked for the fusion ticket. The exceptions were Dr. David G. Wylie, of the Scotch Presbyterian church, and the Rev. Dr. Vandewater, of Andrews' Episcopal church, who advised their congregations to examine the two tickets closely and vote for the best men on them. Henry Frank, of the Metropolitan Independent church, advised his hearers to vote "against bosses whether they came from this city or Tingo county."

The Rev. Father J. Ducey, of St. Leo's Roman Catholic church, spoke on the election for the Shepard side. A feature of the fusion campaign has been the work of the women's campaign committees. A report says this committee distributed several hundred thousand copies in English and German, of a pamphlet purporting to be an expose of vice in the city. Democrats also had a woman's campaign committee actively at work. While the fusion campaign practically closed Saturday night, a few more meetings have been scheduled for Monday night. Senator Dewey is down for a speech at a meeting to last from noon until 5 p. m. The Democrats intend to carry the work up to the last moment, and have not changed their forecast that Mr. Shepard will receive a majority of about 50,000. Robert C. Morris, of the Republican committee, predicts that Mr. Low's majority will be 70,000.

In New Jersey.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 4.—The gubernatorial campaign in New Jersey was brought to a close with the leaders of both parties claiming victory for their respective candidates. The Republicans base their hopes on the large majority which must be wiped out by the opposition, and that the voters of the state will return a Republican governor as an evidence of their indorsement of the national administration. The Democrats claim victory chiefly on the personal popularity of their candidate for governor, James M. Seymour. He is very popular with the working classes, and his strength is acknowledged by his opponents. He has hitherto been elected mayor of Newark by large majorities. Both state committees have compiled tables made up from reports from various counties of the state. The Republicans by their figures show that Franklin Murphy, their candidate for governor, will be elected by about 10,000 majority. The table compiled by the Democrats give Seymour 8,000 majority.

In Kentucky.

Louisville, Nov. 4.—As the four Democratic candidates for United States senator in Kentucky, ex-Governor McCreary, Congressman Wheeler, Congressman Smith and Judge Cantrill, decided not to make a canvass from the stump, and as Senator Deboe was the only announced Republican candidate, the campaign in this state preliminary to the election of Tuesday, when half of a state senate and a new lower house will be chosen, has been without special feature. In the city of Louisville the Democratic and the Republican executive committees have worked hard for their municipal tickets as the majority now held by a Democrat is at stake, and each side claims the election by from 5,000 to 7,000 majority.

In Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 4.—Final instructions have been sent out to the party managers over the state, and the committees will keep open house Tuesday, more for the purpose of guarding against surprise than anything else. The registration in this city shows a falling off of over 2,000 compared with a year ago, and is less by 1,000 than two years ago. The same report comes from other large towns in the state. This is not encouraging to the Republicans, but as the same apathy is shown in the country they claim to see no cause for alarm. The last rally of importance will be at South Omaha, where W. J. Bryan will make a number of speeches tonight.

Taking Villamil Home.

New York, Oct. 4.—The Spanish steamship Montserrat, on her way home from Havana, came into port with her flag at half mast. In a mortuary apartment aboard the liner is the body of Admiral Villamil, who lost his life during the encounter with the American ships at Santiago. The body is on the way to Spain. Before the Montserrat leaves the Spanish consul and many of the Spanish residents of this city will attend memorial services aboard the steamer.

Busy Day for Bishops.

Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—The Methodist pulpits of this city and of Covington, Newport and other Kentucky towns were occupied Sunday by the visiting members of the Methodist board of bishops. Some of the bishops preached three times during the day by holding afternoon services, and most of them preached twice. Monday morning the sessions of the board were resumed, and will continue in session until Wednesday.

Started Fire With Coal Oil.

Kansas City, Nov. 4.—J. B. Orr, principal of the Central school of Kansas City, Kan., was burned while building a fire in the kitchen range, and died of his injuries. He was using coal oil to kindle the fire and an explosion followed, setting fire to his clothing. Mr. Orr was one of the best known educators in Kansas.

REV. B. F. PATT

Pastor of the Fifth Street Baptist Church Spoke on "True Greatness" at Y. M. C. A. Sunday.

The meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon took the form of a public gathering. A large number of ladies attended the meeting and enjoyed the service with the men.

The new Association Mixed Chorus, in charge of Miss Jennie Blinn, instructor of vocal music in Shepardson College, Granville, sang for the first time at this service. The chorus was accompanied by Miss Ada Ickes on the piano.

The new Association Male Quartet was also in attendance and sang very creditably.

The address was delivered by the Rev. B. F. Patt of the Baptist church, and was on the subject of "True Greatness." It was inspiring and helpful address throughout, pointing out that the true greatness is found only in the religion of Jesus Christ. Many men in this life are receiving medals and commendation for great and daring acts for what other men made possible. The private in the ranks is not mentioned, but the officer at the head is commended in this life. There is a time coming, however, when every man will receive just commendation for true loyalty and true greatness.

Such was the line of thought pursued by the speaker to the great edification of all present.

The Mixed Chorus will sing at the men's meeting next Sunday afternoon.

FLOODING

Country With Counterfeit Five Dollar Bills and the Whole Issue May Be Recalled.

Springfield, O., Nov. 4.—The flooding of this city with $5 counterfeit bills was done by a party by six strangers four men and two women, who are thought to be professional counterfeiters from the east and made the goods there and are now traveling over the country disposing of the same. They did not remain very long, but kept going from store to store making small purchases and offering these bills in payment for their.

A. R. Cabaugh cashier of the First National Bank, was the first to detect the counterfeit, which is a $5 certificate of Government issue with the Indian head thereon. The certificates are the finest of counterfeits, but are about one eighth of an inch shorter than the good bills, and a slight roughness of the surface is noticed in the paper. A leading banker is authority for the statement that the Government will have to recall the entire issue. He also stated that when the bank clearings are made Monday afternoon from 200 to 500 will be discovered here. The police think that every large city in the state has been caught. Peter Koepke had three passed on him and Charles Bigler one after the police had been notified. The banks refused in all about 50 Saturday.

CAMPAIGN TRAGEDY.

Negro With a Gun Breaks Up a Political Meeting.

POSSE AND HOUNDS ON HIS TRAIL.

Angered at Remarks by a White Man He Emptied Two Charges of Shot Into the Crowd, Killing Two Men and Wounding Others—Chapter of Criminal Events.

Roanoke, Va., Nov. 4.—At the village of Ferrum, Va., 30 miles from here, there is intense excitement over a campaign tragedy.

William Hale, colored, became angered at remarks made at a political meeting, and leaving the hall went to his home where he armed himself with a double-barreled shotgun, loaded with buckshot, returned to the place where the speaking was being held and fired both barrels into the crowd. A white man named Robinett, who was the village blacksmith, was killed instantly and John Thomas, colored, received wounds from which he died shortly afterward. Two other men, both white, were seriously and probably fatally wounded. Hale fled and is still at large.

Hale made his escape and has not been captured, though the country is being scoured for miles around by indignant citizens. Bloodhounds were sent to the scene. Hale is said to be a desperate character.

Desperadoes Escape.

Yuma, A. T., Nov. 4.—Thomas Hart, under sentence for murder, and a Mexican named Leibas, in jail for robbery, overpowered the deputy sheriff on guard and taking possession of a switch engine, standing near a round house, ran it four miles into the country and escaped. Section Foreman Martin fired a shot through the speeding engine, and from blood found on a cushion in the engine it is supposed that Leibas, who was working the throttle, was hit. When the men left the engine they opened wide the throttle and the locomotive ran several miles. A posse went in pursuit of the fugitives.

Long Game of Hide and Seek.

New York, Nov. 4.—After a two year's hunt in which, the police were led successively to Boston, Buffalo, Philadelphia and Pittsburg, George Fisher, wanted for embezzlement, was finally run down here. Fisher was for five years in the employ of Dazarian, a dealer in theatrical goods of this city as bookkeeper, and according to the police, embezzlements aggregating $5,000 were discovered in October, 1899. When arrested Fisher told the detectives he was glad the game of hide and seek was over.

Mob Baffled.

Miller, S. D., Nov. 4.—While the sheriff was taking Isaac Alley, charged with assaulting a 9-year-old girl, to the Highmore jail, a mob attempted to take the prisoner from the officers with the evident intention of lynching him. The sheriff summoned assistance, and the mob was dispersed. Ten or twelve of the would-be lynchers were arrested and fined for interfering with an officer.

Tortured and Robbed.

Massillon, O., Nov. 4.—Balsar Race, his wife and two sons, living near this city, were tortured by burglars until they gave up over $1,000 in certificates of deposit and $4000 in money. The burglars singed the hair of their victims and threatened to roast them alive. One of Race's sons may not recover. The burglars escaped in rigs stolen from Mr. Race.

Looking Up Annie's Friends.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 4.—O. O. Rindagah, of St. Paul, superintendent of a private detective agency, is in Great Falls, searching for the companions of Annie Rogers, now under arrest at Nashville, Tenn., suspected of complicity in the Great Northern train robbery at Malta, Mont., July 3. Rindagah has secured important information.

Result of a Row.

Middlesboro, Ky., Nov. 4.—Louis Collins, 30, was killed in a general row in the "keg house" saloon. His slayer is unknown. Collins lived in Harlan county.

Pleased With What Davis Said.

Mexico City, Nov. 4.—The speech of Senator Davis in the Pan-American congress upholding the territorial integrity of the Latin-American republics, disclaiming any designs against them on the part of the United States and affirming strongly the Monroe doctrine created much discussion. The liberal papers approve it. Don Filomeno Mata, editor of the radical liberal paper El Diario Del Hogar, regards the utterance as sure to have the happiest effect among the liberals in South and Central America.

Industrial Commission's Limit.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The industrial commission will cease to exist December 15 by operation of law. The members of the commission are at home, mostly to vote in the coming state elections. A full meeting of the commission will be held Wednesday, and the commission probably will remain in session most of the month going over its final report. This will be embodied in one volume, and will be submitted to congress about the time the official existence of the commission expires.

Philippine Sedition Act.

Manila, Nov. 4.—There was a public discussion before the Philippine commission of the drafts of the act against treason and sedition. Many prominent Filipinos were present. Vice Governor Wright explained the object of the bill saying the Spanish code was unsatisfactory.

NEWARK WON

Saturday Afternoon's Foot Ball Game
From Zanesville With Ease by Score of 40 to Nothing.

The game of football played by teams representing the Zanesville and Newark Athletic clubs resulted in an easy victory for the Newark boys Saturday afternoon, the final score being 40 to nothing in their favor.

It was seen before the close of the first half that the Clay City boys were outclassed, and it was only a question of the number of touchdowns the Newark team would make.

It was early learned that the Zanesville ends were weak, and Jones, Foos and Strecker made repeated gains by end runs of from 10 to 20, 30 and 40 yards. Foos and Jones each made spectacular runs, the former for 50 and the latter for 65 yards in the second half.

The Zanesville line held well, and only small gains could be made by bucking. Zanesville also tried in vain to penetrate the Newark line.

The play was almost continuously in Zanesville's territory and at no time was Newark's goal in danger.

The teams lined up as follows:
Zanesville. Position. Newark.
Center.

W. Flower	Left Guard.	Seward
Young	Left Tackle.	Arbaugh
Baird	Left End.	Dille
Johnson	Right Guard.	Houck
Hardin	Right Tackle.	Davis
Wilson	Right End.	Crawford
Moore	Quarter Back.	Foos
McClain	Right Half.	Hartshorn
Miller	Full Back.	Strecker
E. Flowers (capt.)		Prior

Touchdowns, Foos 2, Jones 2, Hartshorn 2, Strecker 1. Goals from touchdowns, Jones 5. Referee, Atwell, umpire, Allen. Time 20 minute halves.

STOPPED THE MASS.

Father Crowley Humiliated at a Chicago Cathedral.

ORDERED TO LEAVE THE SANCTUARY.

He Refused to Go and Dared the Church Authorities to Remove Him. Lights on the Altar Were Extinguished, Choir and Organ Silenced and Priests Cast Off Vestments.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—There was an intensely dramatic scene in Holy Name cathedral when, in the presence of fully 1,000 parishioners, Jeremiah J. Crowley, the excommunicated Roman Catholic priest, was publicly humiliated by order of the church authorities. Father Crowley entered the church unobserved, passing up the center aisle, and took a seat almost under the pulpit. Solemn high mass was being celebrated at the time. When the presence of Father Crowley became known Rev. Francis J. Barry, chancellor of the archdiocese of Chicago, was hurriedly sent for. Upon entering the cathedral he went straight to the seat where the excommunicated clergyman was kneeling, and ordered him to leave the church. Father Crowley refused to go, saying: "Put me out if you dare."

The strain was intense, and one woman in the congregation fainted. There was no resort to force, however. Chancellor Barry signalled the choir, the sound of the organ ceased and the singing of the choir was hushed. The priests in the altar stopped the service at the end of the "Gloria" and walked to the benches and laid aside their golden vestments. The altar boys marched out of the sanctuary through a side door, and the priests, clad in their cassocks, followed. The next moment the hundreds of incandescent lights in the vaulted arches were extinguished and the candle lights on the altar were put out.

Chancellor Barry appeared in the pulpit, and said: "Owing to the presence in this sacred edifice of an excommunicated priest the solemn high mass has been suspended. We will proceed with a low mass." No sermon was delivered, however, and the mass was at an end before the congregation was calm again. The parishioners lingered around the cathedral and watched the deposed priest as he hurried away, but none spoke to him.

In a statement issued by Father Crowley he insisted that it was his desire to avoid involving any of his brother priests in contesting the order depriving him of the privilege of worshiping in Catholic churches, and that, accordingly, he attended the church of Archbishop Feehan's own parish, which is the cathedral. He announced that he should continue to attend the services of the Roman Catholic church.

King Praying for Peace.

London, Nov. 4.—At the dinner on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, King Edward toasting the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, gave a sketch of their tour referring to their arrival at Cape Town, his majesty said: "There unfortunately the war is prolonged, but we firmly pray for the re-establishment of peace and prosperity." In conclusion the king said, "In all the colonies thus visited they fulfilled their mission, expressing the gratitude of the mother country for the aid generously accorded her in the hour of need, and they were everywhere received with a cordiality of loyal enthusiasm which could not have been surpassed. The accounts of these receptions have touched me deeply, and I trust the practical results will be to draw closer the strong ties of mutual affection which bind together the old motherland and her numerous thriving offspring."

Reception to Irish Visitors.

New York, Nov. 4.—Irish-Americans to the number of 4,000 from this city and vicinity gathered at a reception at Carnegie hall in honor of John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish nationalist party in the British parliament, given under the auspices of the Amalgamated Irish societies in New York, the Irish Nationalist club and the New York Irish league. In his speech Mr. Redmond said that the policy of the united Irish league movement was to advance the national cause of Irishmen by making the government of Ireland by England, in every department, both in parliament and out of parliament, difficult and dangerous and finally impossible.

Leveled by Fire.

Lisbon, N. H., Nov. 4.—Starting in the peg mill of James G. Moore fire destroyed a large part of the business section of this town. The burned buildings include Brigham's hotel, the bank building, Cogswell & Oliver's store, a block owned by Mrs. Charles Parker and the store of the Fred Parker company. Total loss, $100,000; insurance, $50,000 to $60,000.

No News About Miss Stone.

Constantinople, Nov. 4.—Nothing is publicly known here, beyond what has already been cabled regarding the whereabouts and fate of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the abducted American missionary, or the progress of the negotiations for her ransom. In the absence of news there is considerable disquietude.

Leopold's Godson.

Brussels, Nov. 4.—Princess Elizabeth, who was married October 2, 1900, to Prince Albert, heir presumptive to the throne of Belgium, gave birth to a son who will be christened Leopold. The king visited Prince Albert to congratulate him upon the event, expressed his joy and promised to act as godfather.

DENISON WON

At Wooster Saturday Afternoon Defeating the Old State Champion By Score of 12 to 0.

Wooster lost to Denison on the Wooster Athletic ground Saturday afternoon in a ragged game by the score of 12 to 0. The game was hotly contested, and both elevens were pretty evenly matched. During the greater part of the playing the ball was Denison's territory. Both of Denison's touchdowns were of the fluky order. In the first half Roundbush stole the ball and ran forty yards for a touchdown, in the second half on Wooster's 20-yard line Abbey made a poor punt of ten yards, the ball struck a Wooster player and rolled over the Wooster goal when Jones fell upon the ball. Jones kicked both goals. The stars for Denison were Crawford, Jones and Leahy. For Wooster Captain Lucas, Abbey and Goheen. The line-up:

Wooster (0)	(12) Denison.
Whitcraft, l. e.	r. e. Swing

High School Notes.

The first rhetoricals of this year were given Friday. The exercises were opened with a song by the school. The biography of Madame De Stael by Cassie Hillier, was excellent. The sketch by Ruth Speer was well written and well read. Recitations by Theodore Kemp and Fay Hand were very good. The piano solo by Elsie Hirschberg was thoroughly enjoyed. The oration on Criticism by Verne Priest, also the essays by Edna Swanson and Harry Everetts were very interesting. The reading by Marion Hatch was listened to with much interest, while the Halloween story by Grace Chaltant was duly appreciated. The exercises closed with a song by the school. The first program was indeed a success, and the pupils certainly deserve credit for the effort put forth. Among the visitors present were: Mrs. Arthur Hatch, Misses Bessie Glenn, Mabel Glenn, Cora Duncan, Shirley Pitsen, Ruby Jones, Flora Fisher, Olive Norman, and Mary Gary of Zanesville, Messrs Pugh and Clyde Crilly. The next program will be rendered Friday afternoon at 2:30.

The Central Ohio Teachers' Association meets at Cincinnati next Friday and Saturday. Probably not many teachers will go from here. Mr. Steele will make a display of the work of the Newark pupils.

Superintendent Townsend received a letter from Miss Wörting which he expects to read in chapel. She expects to spend several months in Paris, for study, before returning.

The first issue of The Hetuck published by the class of 1902, was out Monday. It is gotten up in very fine style for which the staff deserve much credit. It is hoped to have the next number out by the twentieth of this month.

Mr. Townsend addressed the High School pupils Monday morning. By the entertainment given Friday evening it is thought that about ten dollars were cleared. The expenses were rather heavy.

Helen Graff presided at the piano in chapel during the past week. Bessie Stater of the Senior class, has been absent during the past week.

The superintendent met the teachers of the seventh and eighth grades Thursday. He will meet the teachers of the first and second grades next Thursday.

Miss Hattie Jones is now able to sit up.

The English class and the Commercial class of the tenth year have been separated.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—A captive balloon escaped with nine people, but after a voyage of two hours landed safely near Pescadero, 50 miles from this city.

Those who made the involuntary trip were: Ed P. Dudley, aeronaut; A. L. Dodge, Ed Foster, Jr., Walter Leon, C. F. Vilecoq, J. F. Leonard, M. L. Howarth, John A. M. Shift and Mrs. J. P. Gussalsau.

A. L. Dodge, one of the passengers, describing the trip, said the balloon first started toward Oakland, and after circling about for a time drifted southward, and became stationary for a short period. Then in response to a breeze from the eastward it sailed over the San Mateo hills and stood far out over the ocean. The hearts of all the occupants of the wicker cage were filled with fear as the prospect of being dumped into the ocean stared them in the face. Twice, according to Dodge's story, the balloon dipped close to the water, but rose each time to a considerable altitude. Finally a breeze from the sea caught the balloon and carried it back over the land, and after dragging the cage through the tops of a grove of trees, landed it on a hillside six miles from Pescadero.

"It was a terrible experience," said Dodge, "and I would not undergo the same adventure again for any consideration. Everybody was more or less shaky, while the woman passenger and two or three of the men were so sick they sat in the bottom of the basket throughout the trip."

Will Not Do So Much Grinding in this Indiana Court—A Judge's Strong Language.

Kokomo, Ind., Nov. 4.—Judge Hiram Brownlee of the Howard Superior court, has crippled the divorce industry in this county. Court convenes today with but four applications for legal separations. The usual number from twenty to thirty. At a previous session Judge Brownlee threw several cases out of court and announced in forceful language that hereafter no decrees should be issued by default or collusion of the parties. No divorced "by agreement" will go. There must be a court trial and the defendant will be attached as a witness. "The $3 lawyers are to blame for the easy divorce abomination," declared the Judge. "I wish the attorneys' fees in divorce cases were $100 fixed by law and that acceptance of a less sum could be made grounds for disbarment."

The New Treaty.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Ambassador Pauncefote, of England, called on Secretary Hay today to discuss the new treaty with England and the Isthmian canal. The treaty will abrogate the old Clayton-Bulwer treaty, will omit prohibition against fortifying the canal, and will place its control in the hands of the United States alone without requesting that the principle of neutrality should be agreed to by other nations. With these amendments, the new treaty will meet the views of the Senate as expressed a year ago.

Then in response to a breeze from the eastward it sailed over the San Mateo hills and stood far out over the ocean. The hearts of all the occupants of the wicker cage were filled with fear as the prospect of being dumped into the ocean stared them in the face. Twice, according to Dodge's story, the balloon dipped close to the water, but rose each time to a considerable altitude. Finally a breeze from the sea caught the balloon and carried it back over the land, and after dragging the cage through the tops of a grove of trees, landed it on a hillside six miles from Pescadero.

"It was a terrible experience," said Dodge, "and I would not undergo the same adventure again for any consideration. Everybody was more or less shaky, while the woman passenger and two or three of the men were so sick they sat in the bottom of the basket throughout the trip."

DIVORCE MILL

Will Not Do So Much Grinding in this Indiana Court—A Judge's Strong Language.

Kokomo, Ind., Nov. 4.—Judge Hiram Brownlee of the Howard Superior court, has crippled the divorce industry in this county. Court convenes today with but four applications for legal separations. The usual number from twenty to thirty. At a previous session Judge Brownlee threw several cases out of court and announced in forceful language that hereafter no decrees should be issued by default or collusion of the parties. No divorced "by agreement" will go. There must be a court trial and the defendant will be attached as a witness. "The $3 lawyers are to blame for the easy divorce abomination," declared the Judge. "I wish the attorneys' fees in divorce cases were $100 fixed by law and that acceptance of a less sum could be made grounds for disbarment."

TORTURED

Family to Obtain Money from a Farmer Near Massillon—The Burglars Made Their Escape.

Massillon, O., Nov. 4.—Burglars on Sunday morning entered the farm house of Balser Race, near here. They robbed Race's oldest son into insensibility, bound and gagged Race, his wife and another son, poured kerosene over them and threatened to roast them alive when they refused to give them money. Finally Race being conditionally freed, gave up $35 in money and a bank certificate for $1,000. The burglars escaped in rigs stolen from Race's barn.

The New Treaty.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Ambassador Pauncefote, of England, called on Secretary Hay today to discuss the new treaty with England and the Isthmian canal. The treaty will abrogate the old Clayton-Bulwer treaty, will omit prohibition against fortifying the canal, and will place its control in the hands of the United States alone without requesting that the principle of neutrality should be agreed to by other nations. With these amendments, the new treaty will meet the views of the Senate as expressed a year ago.

Quit the Steel Car Company.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 4.—Charles T. Schoen, founder of the Schoen Pressed Steel company, and organizer of the Pressed Steel Car company, together with his son, E. A. Schoen, second vice president, have resigned from the directorate of the steel car company and disposed of most of their holdings of the company's securities. W. P. Schoen will remain as first vice president. Charles T. Schoen will devote his time to the $5,000,000 concern which he is launching with Charles M. Schwab and others to manufacture rolled steel car wheels.

ARRESTED

AT HEBRON SUNDAY FOR ABUSING A HORSE.

Were Three Newark Young Men at the Instance of the Humane Society.

Three young men, employed at Moser & Wehrle's foundry were arrested at Hebron Sunday afternoon for abusing a horse, which they hired from Stevenson's livery stable.

A Buckeye Lake car with a number of Newark people aboard, including several members of the humane society, left the Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon, and nearly all the way these young men from Newark, raced with the car, beating and otherwise abusing the horse. They arrive at Hebron shortly after the car, and at the instance of Mr. Charles Bader, were placed under arrest by the marshal of that village.

It was reported that one of the young men was fined $10 and costs this morning, but a telephone message from Hebron at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon said they were then having their trial.

The horse was in a pitiable condition and was brought to Newark on Sunday night by Mr. William Showman. The Humane Society deserves great credit for their laudable effort to put a stop to the abuse of dumb animals, especially horses. The authorities of Hebron are also to be commended for their prompt action in this case.

These three young men were drunk a number of empty beer bottles being found in the bed of the buggy, and it is said they had others packed in ice. The people of Hebron say that nearly every Sunday parties from Newark are seen going through the village with horses that have been badly used up.

VERY ADROIT

IS THIS PLAN TO GET DEMOCRATS TO VOTE FOR A REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

Who Never Voted for a Democrat or Aided the Party of the People in His Life.

In the itinerary Mr. C. W. Seward is making around the county he is suggesting to Democrats to vote for him and Judge John David Jones. Of course he has two objects to accomplish in this plan of campaigning.

First, he thinks to get votes away from Judge Wickham by appealing to the affection Licking Democrats have for their own county.

Second, Mr. Seward may think some of the Democrats whom he may thus induce to vote for him will do so by putting a cross under the rooster and then a cross opposite his name on the Republican ticket, and that these Democrats will believe this plan of marking their ballots will be a vote for him and Judge Jones. But the fact is this would only be a vote for Seward, and not a vote for Judge Jones at all.

Now, Licking County Democrats should bear in mind that there are three counties in this judicial district—that there are two Judges to be elected, of which Licking county is only entitled to one—and that Judge Jones, of Licking, and Judge Wickham, of Delaware, now candidates for their second terms, have administered the office of Common Pleas Judge to the satisfaction and admiration of the great mass of the people, irrespective of party. They have both been tried and approved.

Another fact that Democrats should remember and seriously consider is that Mr. Seward never voted for a Democrat in his life or ever in any way assisted the Democratic party in its struggles to advance the interests of the great mass of the people of this country, but his political action has always been on the side of trusts and monopolies.

In his attempt to get their votes, Mr. Seward seems to presume that Democrats don't know that Judges Jones and Wickham are Democrats and that the best qualification of a Judge is a belief in the Jeffersonian doctrine: "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

It is well understood by those familiar with the ballot law that there is more of a complication in marking ballots by placing cross marks opposite candidates names than by placing it in the circle at the head of the ticket. Especially is this true where two candidates are to be elected to the same office. In that case the voter must place the cross opposite each and every one he wishes to vote for as well as under the rooster or eagle. But the safe way for every Democrat is to do his own voting and thinking, without the advice or solicitation of any interested Republican candidate, especially one who never favors Democratic candidates or principles in the remotest degree.

A BOGUS CHARGE.

It has been ascertained that the Republican State Executive Committee has prepared, and will issue between this and the election a bogus and false statement, purporting to be signed by a number of the labor leaders in Columbus attacking the record of Colonel James Kilbourne as the friend of organized labor.

Many of these leaders have been approached by General Dick and asked to sign the document, but indignantly refused to do so. But the Republican bosses will hesitate at nothing and the names of many of these leaders will no doubt be forged to the document.

Although the Democrats are usually in the minority in Ohio, they have a splendid opportunity this year to carry the State. The Democrats are united as they have not been for years. The Republicans have apathy and indifference to contend with, and if the Democrats will take advantage of these conditions they can carry the State beyond a doubt. This year is the Democratic opportunity. The only thing to do is to get out the Democratic vote.

WHILE IT IS NOTORIOUSLY TRUE THAT THE MASSES ARE UNJUSTLY TAXED, SENATOR HANNA TELLS THEM TO "LET WELL ENOUGH ALONE," INDICATING THAT THEY MIGHT GET A WORSE DOSE.

DEMOCRATS DON'T LOSE THIS CHANCE FOR VICTORY

Democrats, you would not forgive yourselves, you men who desire the preservation of two great political parties in this country, if the Democracy came within a few thousands of carrying Ohio this fall and you knew that you assisted in keeping this state out of the Democratic column, would you? We cannot force too strongly on your notice the splendid chance Democracy has in this campaign. The desperate and frantic effort of the Republicans show that they are on the anxious seat. And well might they be when the superior personal popularity of the Democratic candidates from Governor down is considered. It is plain that if the Democrats of Ohio do their duty—if they go to the polls and influence their neighbors to do the same—Col. James Kilbourne will be Ohio's next Governor, and he will be the pride of his party in the State's capital.

HIDE BOUND REPUBLICAN POLITICS.

There are 21 Congressmen from Ohio, and according to the relative average vote of the two parties, a fair and just apportionment would give the Republicans 11 members and the Democrats 10. Yet the Republicans have the Congressional districts of the State so shamefully gerrymandered, that the Democrats can only elect 4 Congressmen, while the Republicans hog the persimmons with 17. To perpetuate this manifest injustice is one of the miserable reasons offered by Republican managers and their party organ why Republican voters must not compliment popular "Billy" Miller for State Senator because he is a good fellow. The fact that "Billy" Miller, who was the most popular member of either party in the Senate when he previously represented this district, will be invaluable as a promoter of every local interest pertaining to Newark is of no consequence to these Republican politicians or their organ. There is no consideration that equals their desire to perpetuate a partisan wrong and injustice to the Democracy. They would rather that their party should continue this partisan outrage than that Newark city should have an efficient representative in the Senate who would be a hustler in promoting every local interest and measure pertaining to our city and county, and beneficial to all our citizens—Republicans as well as Democrats.

ARE WE READY

"To Let Well Enough Alone?" Mayor Tom L. Johnson made a telling point in his speech at Bucyrus Wednesday in answer to Mark Hanna's key note to "Let well enough alone." Mr. Johnson said:

"Are we ready to let well enough alone when a railroad from Buffalo to Chicago pays taxes on a valuation in Indiana of $36,000 per mile and only $13,000 per mile in Ohio, and another from Toledo to St. Louis pays on a valuation in Indiana $30,000 per mile and in Ohio of only $13,000? 'Let well enough alone' when more than half the people in the state dwell in cities and villages and the large properties of municipal monopolies sell on the market for as many millions as they are on the duplicate for hundreds of thousands?"

"Let well enough alone" is what the unassessed property owners of this state are still demanding.

"This off-year election is the particular time to settle home questions, to inaugurate a just system of taxation that neither the railroads nor the other beneficiaries of the present unjust tax system can avoid. This is the appointed time to settle state issues which the Democratic party has raised and the Republican party is trying to dodge. National questions should be disposed of in the national election, but now state questions should be the all-absorbing topic before the people of this state."

"Our candidate for Governor, Col. James Kilbourne, with the balance of the state ticket and legislative candidates generally throughout the state are pledged to the correction of these abuses and deserve at the hands of the voters an overwhelming victory."

The Judge can pronounce a very long sentence in a very few words. The theatre is full of paradoxes. Even the highest seats are the lowest.

THE CONTRAST

Between the Two Candidates and the Parties They Represent.

In his opening speech Governor Nash says: "I shall say nothing about state affairs."

Senator M. A. Hanna said: "This is no time to bring into this contest any of these side issues of state affairs, such as taxation," etc.

Contrast these flippant refusals to discuss the vital questions which affect all people, with the clear and ringing words of Colonel James Kilbourne, the Democratic candidate for Governor, at Bucyrus.

"On the subject of taxation the position of the Democracy is clear and unmistakable. It does not content itself with the general declaration that the burdens of taxation should be equally distributed, but, secure in the justice of its demands and fearless of the power and influence of corporate wealth, it specifically names those who are conspicuous in their avoidance of the public burdens, and insists that they shall be assessed in the same proportion to their salable value as our farm and city real estate."

"Is there any honest and fair-minded man, to whatever party he may belong, who can dispute the justice of this demand? The platform also provides for sworn public reports and audits which shall make plain to the people the true value of the privileges held by public corporations. Is not this the people's due?"

"The pernicious special legislation enacted by the five Republican legislatures since 1892, insidious and destructive in their character, has loaded communities with additional and unnecessary heavy burdens, and passed the rights of the public over to corporations endowed with privileges no private citizen is entitled to exercise."

"The Democratic party, in its platform, boldly attacks these wrongs and demands their correction not by the destruction or injury of the rights of any man or corporation, but by restoring and maintaining the rights of all, not by unequally distributing the burdens of taxation, but by equalizing them."

"It has but one purpose in view—to amend and enforce existing laws that every dollar of property value shall bear its proportionate share of the burden, without regard to its form or character, but according to its value alone. It has no purpose or desire to injure the wealthy. It has no intention to permit the oppression of those who are not wealthy. It proposes only exact justice to all."

"Here is an issue in which every farmer, laborer, merchant and taxpayer is interested. You are able to tell who is your friend, and who is the friend of the trust and the tax dodger. It is your absolute duty to go to the polls next Tuesday and cast your vote in your own behalf. You will fail in a high duty if you fail to do so."

Vote for Col. James Kilbourne. He is a man who has shown himself to be the laboring man's genuine friend. His personal popularity far exceeds that of his opponent. Everybody knows this to be true. Even Republican politicians are forced to admit it.

DUTY OF ALL CITIZENS.

It is the duty of all good citizens to take part in the selection of public officers, to the end that the public affairs shall be administered for the benefit of the whole people.

For ten years the Republican party has had absolute control of all branches of the state government. During that time taxation, official salaries and official positions have grown greater and more burdensome each year.

And during the same period the inequalities of taxation have been growing in proportion, so that the heaviest burden rests upon those who are the least able to bear it.

This is one of the years when these wrongs may be righted and these burdens lifted at the polls, if the voters see fit to do so. It is the duty of every citizen to help bring this about. The Republican leaders refuse to heed the well-grounded complaints of the masses. This leaves but one thing for intelligent men to do—turn the Republican leaders out of power.

There is no excitement in this campaign, and when there is no excitement the Democrats always have the best chance to win. Democrats, improve the opportunity. Get out the vote and we will carry the State.

Live News on Every Page.

THEY DON'T DESERVE THE VOTES OF DEMOCRATS

In one breath the local Republican organ pleads for Democrats to vote for Republican candidates and in the next breath it dictates that no Republican must vote for a Democrat. Democrats should see through this piece of trickery. Not one of the candidates on the Republican ticket this year ever voted for a Democrat in his life, and not one of them deserves the vote of a Democrat.

PATRIOTIC AND REASONABLE.

As a rule, the thick-and-thin Republican organs of the state have been endeavoring to use the assassination of President McKinley as an argument against the Democratic ticket.

On the other hand, that portion of the press which is not blindly partisan deprecates the policy of dragging the deplorable death of the President into partisan politics. The Columbus Evening Dispatch, an independent Republican paper, whose editor, William D. Erickell, was one of President McKinley's very intimate personal friends, has this to say, which shows that a Republican as well as a Democrat may be both patriotic and reasonable:

"The murder of President McKinley does not demand the vindication of any state policy, or national policy for that matter. It was a blow alike to all citizens regardless of party. There was no political principle involved in the motives which were behind the fatal attack on him. The serpent of anarchy has no political preferences although he may be encouraged by certain so-called politicians, whose weapons are not principles even of political parties, but are mere daggers of personal vilification."

"The maintenance of good order and the preservation of this government against the offscourings of other countries, the assassins of public officers and the haters of all government are one thing, the success of political parties is another. The good citizens of Ohio are too prudent and wise to permit a confusion of the two."

A POOR EXCUSE.

The Republican leaders and papers are offering as an excuse for the inequalities of taxation which have been growing under the past ten years of Republican rule in Ohio, that they can not correct them under the state constitution.

This is a mere subterfuge, but even if it were true, the Republican legislature during that time could have submitted an amendment to the organic law, making it possible to distribute the tax-burdens fairly.

The truth of the matter is that the Republican leaders are committed to the interests of the trusts and great corporations, which furnish them with unlimited election funds, and care little or nothing for the interests of the masses.

If the voters, without regard to political affiliations, desire justice they will go to the polls tomorrow and turn these unfaithful leaders out of power. And if they will go to the polls and vote their common sentiments they will bring about a change.

"TURN THEM OUT."

By refusing for ten years while they have had the absolute control of the state government and legislature to give the people relief from unjust and unequal taxation, the Republican leaders confess to one of two things:

1. That they are incapable of affording the people relief; or,

2. They do not propose to do it.

Let them select the horn of the dilemma. They have no business to continue in power in either case.

If they are not incompetent they are rascals, or vice versa.

Turn them out on one ground or the other.

When men leave the Republican party because they refuse any longer to be owned by bosses and voted as mere cattle, the party organ denounces them as "purchasable." If a voter wants to be a free man, then he comes in for abuse and calumny from the organ of the party of trusts.

Mr. Livingston will make an honest, competent and popular county commissioner. He will run best, too, on tomorrow where he is best known. That fact is always the best test of a man's real merit.

Get out the full Democratic vote tomorrow.

He—"I would gladly die for you," She—"How much life insurance do you carry?"

AGAIN AT THE SAME OLD TRICK.

One of the American-Tribune's side editors is resorting to the same kind of trickery that made the paper so notorious last spring. Every day for a month the paper had some new question about the finances of the city of Newark. The questions were all accompanied with insinuations that there were discrepancies in the city's financial statement, the design being to create suspicion that there was crookedness in the management of the city's affairs.

But after the election was over the side editors of that paper all chuckled over their scheme, practically admitted the game of deception and boasted that they had kept the Advocate busy answering their fool questions.

Now their scheme is to propound some absurd question about alleged discrepancies in the county's finances, thinking that the readers in the county are not familiar with the trick they attempted last spring.

But there are no such discrepancies, and the Republican organ knows it.

If there were any discrepancies in any financial statement of the county, it would be an easy matter to show it up, and that is what a courageous newspaper would do, for it would have a telling political effect. But the irresponsible side editors prefer to resort to cowardly and mysterious insinuations, thinking they can fool somebody by the trick.

They didn't fool anybody in Newark last spring, as the unprecedented Democratic majority showed, and they will not fool anybody at the election this fall.

Their trick is too flimsy and transparent.

There is a remarkable contrast between the personal popularity of the candidates on the Democratic and Republican tickets this year. Every Democratic candidate is immensely superior to his Republican opponent in this regard from the top to the bottom of the ticket. This is why such frantic, unprecedented appeals are made, begging and pleading for votes for the Republican candidates. It is a practical acknowledgement of their unpopularity.

RARE ORATORICAL BIRDS.

Political stump oratory is a curious and interesting study. Statesmen, so-called at least, frequently have a strange method of presenting "arguments" to their hearers.

The oratorical birds are not only of strange feathers, but undergo moulting seasons and come out with new styles of plumage, and you know the bird by its size rather than his color.

Senator M. A. Hanna is a marked instance of this. Take, for instance, his first speech delivered in Springfield, and repeated at other points in which he said:

"I denounced Wm. J. Bryan in his own state as a liar, hypocrite, a demagogue and an anarchist. I insist that we shall have decency and avoid personalities in this political campaign, because of the great public sorrow, because of the foul assassination of President McKinley. I went to Nebraska and South Dakota last year for a couple of hides and I got 'em, and left the birds to pick the carcasses. Let us show our respect for our late beloved President by refusing to consider side issues about State affairs, and cast our votes against Kilbourne and anarchy."

And this passes for statesmanship and argument. In the days of Chase, Wade, Sherman, Thurman, Pugh and Pendleton, it would have passed for almost anything else.

WHY A DEMOCRAT SHOULD VOTE STRAIGHT TOMORROW

Although the Democratic candidates are by far the most popular from top to bottom, the edict is issued by the Republican organ that no voter of its party must compliment any Democratic candidate. At the same time the organ is making frantic efforts to get Democratic votes for its own partisan candidates, not one of whom would compliment a Democrat in casting his ballot. There never was a time in which a Democrat should be more determined to vote his own ticket straight than this year of 1901.

Get out the full Democratic vote tomorrow.

JUDGES JONES AND WICKHAM

Their Endorsement by the Licking Democracy at the Last Annual May Meeting.

The splendid endorsement of Judges Jones and Wickham at the last annual May Meeting of the Licking Democracy, shows the esteem in which these Judges are held by the people of this city and county. The resolution, which follows, speaks for itself regarding the able and faithful manner in which both of them have performed their duties on the Common Pleas bench.

Resolution of the May Meeting.

3. We hereby express our satisfaction with the conduct of Hon. John David Jones of Licking county, and Hon. E. M. Wickham of Delaware county during their first term as judges of the Common Pleas Court.

We recognize their eminent ability and impartiality, and commend their despatch of business which has reduced the formerly congested docket of Licking county so that now all cases on the docket are called for trial at each term. We therefore endorse them for renomination for a second term and instruct the delegates to the judicial convention who are to be elected pursuant to the authority of this convention to use all honorable means to secure the renomination of John David Jones as the candidate from this county, and in like manner to secure the renomination of E. M. Wickham as the other candidate on the Democratic ticket.

OUR COMMON PLEAS JUDGES.

(Mt. Vernon Banner.) There is one thing upon which the members of the Knox county bar agree, and that is that the Common Pleas bench of this sub-judicial district was never occupied by more able, upright, conscientious and unprejudiced men than Judges Emmett M. Wickham and John David Jones, the present incumbents. Judges Wickham and Jones, during the five years they have been on the bench, have won the highest esteem and praise of the attorneys and litigants, and so ably have they interpreted the law that their decisions have been seldom set aside by the higher courts. They are both candidates for re-election, and will doubtless be accorded a large majority vote of the electors of Knox county.

WHAT AN INDEPENDENT PAPER SAYS.

High Compliment Paid by the Delaware, Ohio, Journal, an Independent Newspaper to the Candidates for Common Pleas Judges—Biographical Sketches.

The Delaware Journal (Independent) pays the following high tribute to the worth of the two Democratic candidates for Common Pleas judges, Hon. John David Jones of Licking county, and Hon. Emmet M. Wickham of Delaware county.

JOHN DAVID JONES.

John David Jones was born in Granville, Licking county, Ohio, March 2, 1845. His early life was spent on the farm, in the winter-months attending the district school and later Denison University, at Granville. In August, 1863, the subject of this sketch enlisted in the Second O. V. Heavy Artillery and served in the Civil War until its close, in August, 1865.

The following shows in brief where he spent a part of his useful life:

1865-1866—attended Denison university.

1866-1867—taught school.

June, 1867, commenced the study of law in the office of J. B. Jones, Esq., at Newark, Ohio.

1869 was admitted to the bar in the District Court at Newark.

1873—was elected member of board of education as a Democrat and was re-elected twice thereafter.

In August, 1876, Mr. Jones was married to Miss Rachel A. Giffin, daughter of Hon. C. B. Giffin of Newark.

In 1881, was elected Senator of the 65th General Assembly, at which time Mr. Jones resigned as member of Board of Education.

In October, 1889, Mrs. Jones died, leaving the father to care for three sons and two daughters, the oldest being 10 years of age, the youngest about two months.

In 1890, Mr. Jones was nominated on the Democratic ticket, without opposition, for prosecuting attorney of Licking county, and was elected.

In 1892, he was married to Jessie F. Giffin, sister of his deceased wife.

In 1893, re-elected prosecuting attorney without opposition.

In 1896, Mr. Jones was elected Judge of the Common Pleas Court in the First sub-division, Sixth Judicial District. At this year's Democratic convention, Judge Jones was re-nominated for Common Pleas judge.

Judge Jones is most highly esteemed in the community in which he has always lived, a lawyer of pronounced ability, an honest citizen and most popular among the legal fraternity throughout the state.

HON. E. M. WICKHAM.

Judge Wickham was born in Genoa township, near the Delaware and Franklin county line, October 20, 1859. His early life was spent on his father's farm; attended the district school during the winter months, during the summer months working among the neighbor farmers saving his earnings to buy the books necessary while attending school the balance of the year. In 1880 he began teaching in his home district. He continued teaching until 1892. In 1889 he began the study of law, in connection with his school work, under the preceptorship of Hon. F. M. Marriott. In 1891 he was admitted to the bar. In September following he located in Delaware and began the practice of law in the office of Hon. F. M. Marriott, assisting him in his large practice until 1895 when a partnership was formed for a period of three years.

The firm of Marriott & Wickham was recognized as the leading law firm of Delaware county and during the three years enjoyed a large and successful practice. Judge Wickham is essentially a Democrat in every sense of the word, his ancestors having adhered to the principles of Democracy ever since the founding of the party.

In July, 1896, at Centerville, he was nominated of the first ballot as candidate for Common Pleas judge of the First sub-division of the Sixth District and at the subsequent election was elected by a large majority. The nature of industry, economy and application to study acquired in his youth have clung to him in later years and as a deep thinker as well as constant student of law he is well known. He is a fine lawyer, an excellent scholar, a genial and obliging gentleman. His clear judgment in legal matters eminently qualified him for the high position he has so satisfactorily filled and his re-nomination is proof to the Delaware county friends that he has worn the judicial ermine with honor and credit.

A PUBLIC DUTY.

It is not only a private, but a public duty as well, for every voter in this county to go to the polls on November 5 and record his vote against the arrogant insolence of the bosses who have seized control of the Republican party and propose to stifle the judgment of the best element of that party. Thousands of them are in revolt against these mercenary bosses and will aid the Democrats in turning them out of power which they so flagrantly abuse. Let no Democrat be cajoled into staying away from the polls. They have only to discharge their public duty by going and voting their sentiments, and they will have the satisfaction of knowing that they aided in turning the bosses, the barnacles and the tax-eaters out of power in the State government.

OUR COMMON PLEAS JUDGES.

The richest men often make the poorest husbands.
